ANTI-LABOR

ual trades unions in mind which I can name by number but I had in mind several cases of buildings in New York City, for example, the brick layers working on which they spent about one-third of the working day sitting around smoking their pipes and chatting, because they had laid the number of bricks to which they were limited for the day by the union to which they belonged. I had in mind numerous expenses of my own in dealing with working men in Princeton where I once found it impossible to get a broken window pane mended at the house of an invalid friend because the prescribed labor hours of the day were over the glazier could not venture, without risking a strike to do the work himself, and could not order any of his workmen to do it. I had in mind scores of instances in short, lying within my own experience and resting upon the testimony of friends in whose veracity I have every reason to have the greatest confidence.

"I, of course, could not in the case of more than one or two of these instances give legal proof of my assertions, but the evidences I have are entirely sufficient to convince me of the general truth of the statement I made.

"Very truly yours, (Signed) WOODROW WILSON. "Mr. Edgar R. Lavery."

The committee has in its possession the original letters of Mr. Lavery and Woodrow Wilson above quoted.
